Russia and England in Accord. Vienna, Nov. 14.—Russia and Eng-land are in complete agreement on the proposal for Russian supr-macy in the proposal for Russian supr-macy in the Persian province of Azerbaijan, for shadowing a land grab by the czar, according to today's expression by both Austrian diplomata and several Austrian newspapers. Despits official denia's, few can be found in government circles here who do not support the contention of the press that England has secretly recognized Russia's claim of a right to recognized Russia's claim of a right to intrivene in Tabriz. What Russia promised England in return is only con-incitated, but it is considered certain that the British got secret pledges from the czar. The foreign office hears that Russing soldiers are within casy reach of Tabriz and will assume command of the city and province unless Salar Ktan, in command of the revolutionery forces, administers affairs according to Russian

What Would You Do. In case of a burn or scald what would rou do to relieve the part? Such injures are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Obamber'sin's Salve applied on s soft cloth will relieve the pain a'most nestantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For cale by W.F. Creighton and Richard Gobson.

Shake-up in Ruscia.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 14.—With the retirement of fourteen admirals and an indefinite number of generals, whose prospective resignations were an-nounced a week_sgn, indications now are that the most violent shake up will soon begin in the Russian naval and military establishments that any counconnection with the preparation for ex-pected trouble in the Balkans.

The overhauling of the army and navy followed so quickly that scores of corrupt officers were unable to fad cover.

Both branches were found to be rotien with bribery. Evidence was found of wholesale grafting as a regular business from top to bottom of the two services.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup moves the bowels gently. Contains no opiats. It is pleasant to take, and children especially like the taste, so nearly like maple sugar. Seld by W. F. Creighton & Co.
